1. Menzies LLP

- 1.1. Menzies LLP is a limited liability partnership incorporated in England and Wales with registered number OC336077 and any reference in this document to "we", "us", "the firm" or "Menzies LLP Chartered Accountants", is a reference to Menzies LLP.
- 1.2. The word "partner" is a title and describes Menzies individuals who are members of Menzies LLP. A list of the members is available for inspection at the offices of the firm.

2. Professional obligations

- 2.1. We will observe and act in accordance with the bye-laws and regulations of The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales together with their code of ethics. Copies of these requirements are available for inspection in our offices. We accept instructions to act for you on this basis. In particular you give us authority to correct errors made by HM Revenue and Customs where we become aware of them. We will not be liable for any loss, damage or cost arising from our compliance with statutory or regulatory obligations.

Professional indemnity insurance

- 2.2. In accordance with the disclosure requirements of the Provision of Services Regulations 2009, our professional indemnity insurers are administered by Marsh Limited, of Tower Place, Lower Thames Street, London EC3R 5BU. The territorial coverage is worldwide excluding professional

Menzies LLP is a limited liability partnership registered in England and Wales under number OC336077 to carry out audit work and is regulated for a range of investment business activities by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. Menzies Corporate Finance Limited is registered in England and Wales under number 04149097. Their registered office is at 1st Floor, Midas House, 62 Goldsworth Road, Woking, Surrey GU21 6LQ. A list of the members of Menzies LLP is open to inspection at its registered office. Any reference to a partner in relation to Menzies LLP means a member of Menzies LLP. Individuals within the firm who act as insolvency practitioners are licensed in the UK by the Insolvency Practitioners Association. When acting as officeholders they do so without personal liability. Our Privacy Notice and Standard Terms of Business are available at www.menzies.co.uk/legal.

business carried out from an office in the United States of America or Canada and excludes any action for a claim brought in any court in the United States of America or Canada.

3. Investment services

3.1. Since we are not authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority then we may have to refer you to someone who is authorised if you need advice on investments. However, as we are licensed by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, we may be able to provide certain investment services that are complementary to, or arise out of, the professional services we are providing to you.

3.2. Such advice may include:

- advise you on investments generally, but not recommend a particular investment or type of investment;
- refer you to a Permitted Third Party (PTP) (an independent firm authorised by the FCA), assist you and the PTP during the course of any advice given by that party and comment on, or explain, the advice received (but not make alternative recommendations). The PTP will issue you with their own terms and conditions letter, will be remunerated separately for their services and will take full responsibility for compliance with the requirements of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
- advise you in connection with the disposal of an investment, other than your rights in a pension policy or scheme;
- advise and assist you in transactions concerning shares or other securities not quoted on a recognised exchange;
- assist you in making arrangements for transactions in investments in certain circumstances; and
- manage investments or act as trustee (or donee of a power of attorney) where decisions to invest are taken on the advice of an authorised person.

And in respect of corporate clients only:

3.3. We may also, on the understanding that the shares or other securities of the company are not publicly traded:

- advise the company, existing or prospective shareholders in relation to exercising rights, taking benefits or share options, valuations and methods of such valuations;
- arrange any agreements in connection with the issue, sale or transfer of the company's shares or other securities;
- arrange for the issue of new shares; and
- act as the addressee to receive confirmation of acceptance of offer documents etc.

3.4. In the unlikely event that we cannot meet our liabilities to you, you may be able to claim compensation under the Chartered Accountants' Compensation Scheme in respect of exempt regulated activities undertaken.

Financial promotions

3.5. To enable us to provide you with a proper service, there may be occasions when we will need to contact you without your express permission concerning investment business matters. For example, it may be in your interests to sell a particular investment and we would wish to inform you of this. We may therefore contact you in such circumstances, but would only do so in our normal office hours of 09:00 to 17:30. We shall of course comply with any restrictions you may wish to impose which you notify to us in writing.

4. Commissions or other benefits

- 4.1. Commissions or other benefits may sometimes become payable to us in respect of introductions to other professionals or transactions we arrange for you, in which case you will be notified in writing of the amount, the terms of payment and receipt of any such commissions or benefits. The nature of the engagement and professional judgement would determine the frequency and detail required to ensure compliance with the code of ethics. You consent to such commissions or other benefits being retained by us without our being liable to account to you for any such amounts.
- 4.2. The firm may receive commission from any introduction to a PTP in connection with the above, in which case you will be fully informed of the expected size and nature of such commission at the time of the introduction. Such commission will be held in our clients' account until we receive instructions from you as to how it should be treated. In the event of no such instructions being received, we may use such monies against any fees that have been outstanding for 30 days or more and concerning which you are not in dispute with us.

5. Client monies

- 5.1. We may, from time to time, hold money on your behalf. Such money will be held in trust in a client bank account, which is segregated from the firm's funds. The account will be operated, and all funds dealt with, in accordance with the Clients' Money Regulations of The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England & Wales.
- 5.2. In order to avoid an excessive amount of administration, interest will only be paid to you where the amount of interest that would be earned on the balances held on your behalf in any calendar year exceeds £25. Any such interest would be calculated using the prevailing rate applied by Barclays Bank Plc for small deposits subject to the minimum period of notice for withdrawals. Subject to any tax legislation, interest will be paid gross.
- 5.3. If the total sum of money held on your behalf exceeds £10,000 for a period of more than 30 days, or such sum is likely to be held for more than 30 days, then the money will be placed in a separate interest-bearing client bank account designated to you. All interest earned on such money will be paid to you. Subject to any tax legislation, interest will be paid gross.
- 5.4. In the unlikely event of us holding any unclaimed monies we reserve the right to pay such monies to a registered charity in line with the guidelines set out in the Clients' Money Regulations referred to above. We will not do this unless we have been unable to contact you for at least five years and we have taken reasonable steps to trace you and return the monies.

6. Fees

- 6.1. Our fees are computed on the basis of time spent on your affairs by the Partners and our staff, including sub-contractors or consultants where necessary, and on the levels of skill and responsibility involved. Disbursements represent travel, accommodation and other expenses incurred in dealing with your affairs.
- 6.2. If it is necessary to carry out work outside the responsibilities outlined in this letter, we will advise you in advance. Any additional work will involve additional fees. Accordingly, we would like to point out that it is in your interests to ensure that your records etc. are completed to the agreed stage.
- 6.3. We will arrange to invoice at periodic intervals during the course of the year and would remind you that all invoices rendered are due for settlement within 30 days. Invoices are payable in full (including disbursements) in accordance with the terms set out on the invoice.
- 6.4. Any query over a fee rendered must be raised in writing to us within 30 days of the date of the fee note. If no query is so raised within this period the fee will be due and payable without any right of further explanation, amendment or dispute.
- 6.5. Furthermore, we reserve the right to charge interest and to apply collection charges for late payment pursuant to the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998. We also reserve the right to terminate our engagement and cease acting if payment of any fees billed is unduly delayed.

- 6.6. If a client company, trust or other entity is unable or unwilling to settle our fees, we reserve the right to seek payment from the individual (or parent company) giving us instructions on behalf of the client, and we shall be entitled to enforce any sums due against the group company or individual nominated to act for you.
- 6.7. Insofar as we are permitted to so by law or by professional guidelines, we reserve the right to exercise a lien over all funds, documents and records in our possession relating to all engagements for you until all outstanding fees and disbursements are paid in full.
- 6.8. In the event that we cease to act in relation to your company's affairs you agree to meet all reasonable costs of providing information to the company's new advisers. In particular you agree to meet these costs where we are required by law to provide information to a successor firm.

7. Retention of records

- 7.1. You have a legal responsibility to retain documents and records relevant to your financial affairs. During the course of our work we may collect information from you and others relevant to your tax and financial affairs. We will return any original documents to you if requested, unless we are required by law or by professional guidelines to retain these ourselves. Documents and records relevant to your tax affairs are required by law to be retained as follows:

Individuals, trustees and partnerships:

- with trading or rental income: five years and 10 months after the end of the tax year;
- otherwise: 22 months after the end of the tax year.

Companies, Limited Liability Partnerships, and other corporate entities:

- six years from the end of the accounting period.

Although certain documents may legally belong to you, we may destroy documents, correspondence and other data that we store electronically or otherwise that are more than seven years old, except those that we think may be of continuing significance or those that may need to be kept for a longer period as required by applicable legislation. You must notify us in writing if you wish us to keep any document for a longer period.

Our Privacy Notice, located at www.menzies.co.uk/legal, contains further information on data retention.

8. Conflicts of interest and independence

- 8.1. We reserve the right during our engagement with you to deliver services to other clients whose interests might compete with yours or are or may be adverse to yours, subject to 9 below. We confirm that we will notify you immediately should we become aware of any conflict of interest involving us and affecting you unless we are unable to do so because of our confidentiality obligations. We have safeguards that can be implemented to protect the interests of different clients if a conflict arises. Where conflicts are identified which cannot be managed in a way that protects your interests then we regret that we will be unable to provide further services.
- 8.2. During and after our engagement, you agree that we reserve the right to act for other clients whose interests are or may compete with or be adverse to yours, subject, of course, to our obligations of confidentiality and the safeguards set out in the paragraph on confidentiality below.

9. Confidentiality

- 9.1. We confirm that where you give us confidential information, we shall at all times keep it confidential, except as required by law or as provided for in regulatory, ethical or other professional statements relevant to our engagement.

- 9.2. You agree that, if we act for other clients who are or who become your competitors, to comply with our duty of confidentiality it will be sufficient for us to take such steps as we think appropriate to preserve the confidentiality of information given to us by you, both during and after this engagement. These may include taking the same or similar steps as we take in respect of the confidentiality of our own information.
- 9.3. In addition, if we act for other clients whose interests are or may be adverse to yours, we will manage the conflict by implementing additional safeguards to preserve confidentiality. Safeguards may include measures such as separate teams, physical separation of teams, and separate arrangements for storage of, and access to, information.
- 9.4. You agree that the effective implementation of such steps or safeguards as described above will provide adequate measures to avoid any real risk of confidentiality being impaired.
- 9.5. We may, on occasions, subcontract work on your affairs to other tax or accounting professionals. The subcontractors will be bound by our client confidentiality terms.
- 9.6. If we use external or cloud-based systems, we will ensure confidentiality of your information is maintained.
- 9.7. This clause applies in addition to our data protection obligations below.

10. Quality control

- 10.1. As part of our ongoing commitment to providing a quality service, our files are periodically subject to an independent regulatory or quality review. Our reviewers are highly experienced and professional people and are, of course, bound by the same requirements of confidentiality as our principals and staff.

Dealing with HM Revenue & Customs

- 10.2. When dealing with HM Revenue & Customs on your behalf we are required to be honest and to take reasonable care to ensure that your returns are correct. To enable us to do this, you are required to be honest with us and to provide us with all necessary information in a timely manner. For more information about 'Your Charter' for your dealings with HM Revenue & Customs, see <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/your-charter/your-charter>. To the best of our abilities, we will ensure that HM Revenue & Customs meet their side of the Charter in their dealings with you.
- 10.3. We will take account of the steps and checks suggested by HM Revenue & Customs in their 'Agent Toolkits'. While use of the Toolkits is voluntary, we will ensure that our quality control procedures match or enhance the suggestions in the Toolkits so that, in the unlikely event that HM Revenue & Customs consider any of your tax returns with which we assist to be inaccurate, we will be able to help you demonstrate to HM Revenue & Customs that reasonable care has been taken in the preparation of the return, thereby significantly reducing the possibility of an inaccuracy penalty being imposed. To further reduce the possibility of an inaccuracy penalty, you will remain responsible for maintaining good quality supporting records for each return, for providing us with all relevant information and explanations and for acting on any advice that we give you.

11. Help us to give you the right service

- 11.1. We are committed to providing you with a high quality service that is both efficient and effective. If at any time you would like to discuss with us how our service to you could be improved, or if you are dissatisfied with the service you are receiving, please let us know, by telephoning your engagement partner or the firm's Managing Partner, Julie Adams.
- 11.2. We undertake to look into any complaint carefully and promptly and to do all we can to explain the position to you. We will acknowledge your letter within five working days of its receipt and endeavour to deal with your complaint within eight weeks. If you feel that we have given you a less than satisfactory service, we undertake to do everything reasonable to address your concerns. If you are still not satisfied, you may of course take up matters with The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

11.3. In order for us to provide you with a high quality service on an ongoing basis it is essential that you provide us with relevant records and information when requested, reply to correspondence in a timely manner and otherwise follow the terms of the agreement between us set out in this Standard Terms of Business and associated Engagement letters. We therefore reserve the right to cancel the engagement between us with immediate effect in the event of:

- your insolvency, bankruptcy or other arrangement being reached with creditors;
- failure to pay our fees by the due dates;
- either party being in breach of their obligations where this is not corrected within 30 days of being asked to do so.

12. Applicable law

- 12.1. This engagement letter is governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law. The Courts of England will have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to any claim, dispute or difference concerning this engagement letter and any matter arising from it. Each party irrevocably waives any right it may have to object to any action being brought in those courts, to claim that the action has been brought in an inappropriate forum, or to claim that those courts do not have jurisdiction.
- 12.2. If any provision in this Standard Terms of Business or any associated engagement letter, or its application, are found to be invalid, illegal or otherwise unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality or enforceability of any other provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

13. Changes in the law, in practice or in public policy

- 13.1. We will not accept responsibility if you act on advice previously given by us without first confirming with us that the advice is still valid in light of any change in the law, public policy or your circumstances.
- 13.2. We will accept no liability for losses arising from changes in the law or the interpretation thereof, practice, or public policy that are first published after the date on which the advice is given.

14. Internet connection

- 14.1. Unless you instruct us otherwise we may, where appropriate, communicate with you and with third parties via e-mail or by other electronic means including a secure client portal. However Internet communications are capable of data corruption and therefore we do not accept any responsibility for changes made to such communications after their despatch. It may therefore be inappropriate to rely on advice contained in an e-mail without obtaining written confirmation of it. We do not accept responsibility for any errors or problems that may arise through the use of internet communication and all risks connected with sending commercially sensitive information relating to your business are borne by you. If you do not agree to accept this risk, you should notify us in writing that e-mail is not an acceptable means of communication.
- 14.2. It is the responsibility of the recipient to carry out a virus check on any attachments received.

15. Data protection

15.1. In this clause, the following definitions shall apply:

'client personal data' means any personal data provided to us by you, or on your behalf, for the purpose of providing our services to you, pursuant to our engagement letter with you;

'data protection legislation' means all applicable privacy and data protection legislation and regulations including PECR, the GDPR and any applicable national laws, regulations and secondary legislation in the UK relating to the processing of personal data and the privacy of electronic communications, as amended, replaced or updated from time to time;

'controller', 'processor', 'data subject', 'personal data', 'special category data' and 'process' shall have the meanings given to them in the data protection legislation;

'GDPR' means the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679); and

'PECR' means the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 (SI 2426/2003).

- 15.2. Unless otherwise specified in our engagement letter, we shall each be considered an independent data controller in relation to the client personal data.
- 15.3. We shall both comply with all applicable requirements of the data protection legislation. This clause is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove or replace, either of our obligations under the data protection legislation.
- 15.4. Without prejudice to the generality of clause 1.2, you will ensure that you have all necessary appropriate consents and notices in place to enable the lawful transfer of the client personal data to us. You may use or refer to our Privacy Notice located at www.menzies.co.uk/legal to advise relevant data subjects of our use of their data under this engagement.
- 15.5. In respect of the client personal data, unless otherwise required by applicable laws or other regulatory requirements, we shall:
 - a) process the client personal data only in order to provide you with the services pursuant to our engagement with you and in accordance with applicable data protection legislation;
 - b) disclose and transfer the client personal data to members of our firm's network, our regulatory bodies or other third parties (for example, our professional advisors or service providers) as and to the extent necessary in order to provide you with the services pursuant to our engagement with you in relation to those services;
 - c) disclose the client personal data to courts, government agencies and other third parties as and to the extent required by law;
 - d) where we transfer the client personal data to a country or territory outside the UK or EEA, do so in accordance with data protection legislation;
 - e) maintain commercially reasonable and appropriate security measures, including administrative, physical and technical safeguards, to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of the client personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, the client personal data.
 - f) as a data controller, process the client personal data where it is necessary for the purposes of our legitimate interests and those interests are not overridden by the data subjects' own privacy rights. Our Privacy Notice, located at www.menzies.co.uk/legal, contains further details as to how we may process client personal data. Letters of engagement may also outline how client personal data is processed specifically in relation to the applicable service.
- 15.6. In respect of the client personal data, where required by data protection legislation, we shall notify you:
 - a) without undue delay and in any event, within 72 hours of becoming aware that it relates to you where we reasonably believe that there has been any incident which resulted in the accidental or unauthorised access to, or destruction, loss, unauthorised disclosure or alteration of, the client personal data.
 - b) without undue delay in the event that we are served with an information, enforcement or assessment notice (or any similar notices), or receive any other material communication in respect of our processing of the client personal data from a supervisory authority as defined in the data protection legislation (for example in the UK, the Information Commissioner's Office)
- 15.7. Upon the reasonable request of the other, we shall each co-operate with the other and take such reasonable commercial steps or provide such information as is necessary to enable each of us to comply with the data protection legislation in respect of the services provided to you in accordance with our engagement letter.

- 15.8. Should you require any further details regarding our treatment of personal data, please contact our data protection representative, whose details can be found in our Privacy Notice at menzies.co.uk/legal.

16. Limitation of third-party rights

- 16.1. Persons who are not party to this agreement shall have no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this agreement. This clause does not affect any right or remedy of any person which exists or is available otherwise than pursuant to that Act.
- 16.2. The advice we give you is for your sole use and is confidential to you and will not constitute advice for any third party to whom you may communicate it, unless we have expressly agreed in writing that a specified third party may rely on our work. We will accept no responsibility to third parties, including any group company to whom the engagement letter is not addressed, for any aspect of our professional services or work that is made available to them.

17. HLB International

- 17.1. The HLB International network comprises independent member firms in many countries, many of which use HLB as part of their business name. All member firms are associated with HLBI by reason of their membership but are separate legal entities.
- 17.2. No member firm or other contact has authority to enter into any legal obligations on behalf of HLBI or any other member, nor is any member firm or contact an agent of, or in partnership with, HLBI or any other member firm. By introducing you to any firm, HLBI does not accept any liability for work, which the firm carries out on your behalf and you must make your own contractual arrangements directly with them.
- 17.3. You agree, as the client, that each firm you appoint has sole liability for the work covered by their engagement. You undertake not to bring any proceedings or make any claim whatsoever against any other member of HLBI or against HLBI itself, in relation to the work covered by each agreement.

18. Client identification

- 18.1. In common with other professional services firms, we are required by the Proceeds to Crime Act 2002 and the Money Laundering Regulations 2017 to:
- maintain identification procedures for clients, beneficial owners of clients and persons purporting to act on behalf of clients;
 - maintain records of identification evidence and the work undertaken for the client; and
 - report, in accordance with the relevant legislation and regulations.

As part of the identification procedures that we are required to undertake both at the start of our engagement and from time to time thereafter, we might use electronic verification. Please note that this could leave a "search footprint" on your credit history.

We have a statutory obligation under the above legislation to report to the National Crime Agency (NCA) any reasonable knowledge or suspicion of money laundering. Any such report must be made in the strictest confidence. In fulfilment of our legal obligations, neither the firm's principals nor staff may enter into any correspondence or discussions with you regarding such matters.

- 18.2. If we are not able to obtain satisfactory evidence of your identity and where applicable that of the beneficial owners, we will not be able to proceed with the engagement.

19. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and Common Reporting Standards

- 19.1. Unless agreed specifically in a separate engagement letter, we are not responsible for your compliance with the International Tax Compliance (United States of America) Regulations 2013, produced as a result of FATCA. In particular, we are not responsible for the categorisation of any UK entity into either a Financial Institution (FI) or an active or passive Non-Financial Foreign Entity (NFFE) nor, if a Financial Institution, for its registration with the US Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and subsequent submission of the required annual returns to HM Revenue & Customs.

- 19.2. However, if requested to do so we can provide advice on the completion of the forms supplied by Financial Institutions under these Regulations, or under Common Reporting Standards, and used by them to determine the status of an entity. We can also provide advice on setting up the appropriate systems to identify and report on your clients or beneficiaries who are foreign citizens affected by FATCA or Common Reporting Standards.

20. General limitation of liability

- 20.1. We will provide services as outlined in this letter with reasonable care and skill. Our liability to you is limited to losses, damages, costs and expenses caused by our negligence or wilful default. However, to the fullest extent permitted by law, we will not be responsible for any losses, penalties, surcharges, interest or additional tax liabilities where you or others supply incorrect or incomplete information, or fail to supply any appropriate information or where you fail to act on our advice or respond promptly to communications from us or the tax authorities. Further, we will not be liable to you for any delay or failure to perform our obligations if the delay or failure is caused by circumstances outside our reasonable control.
- 20.2. You will not hold us, our partners and staff, responsible, to the fullest extent permitted by law, for any loss suffered by you arising from any misrepresentation (intentional or unintentional) supplied to us orally or in writing in connection with this agreement. This applies equally to fraudulent acts, misrepresentation or wilful default on the part of any party to the transaction and their directors, officers, employees, agents or advisers. However, this exclusion shall not apply where such misrepresentation, withholding or concealment is or should (in carrying out the procedures which we have agreed to perform with reasonable care and skill) have been evident to us without further enquiry.
- 20.3. You have agreed that you will not bring any claim in connection with services we provide to you against any of our partners or employees personally.
- 20.4. Our work is not, unless there is a legal or regulatory requirement, to be made available to third parties without our written permission and we will accept no responsibility to third parties for any aspect of our professional services or work that is made available to them. You agree to indemnify us and our agents in respect of any claim (including any claim for negligence) arising out of any unauthorised disclosure by you or by any person for whom you are responsible of our advice and opinions, whether in writing or otherwise. This indemnity will extend to the cost of defending any such claim, including payment at our usual rates for the time that we spend in defending it.

21. Intellectual property rights and use of our name

- 21.1. We will retain all intellectual property rights in any document prepared by us during the course of carrying out the engagement except where the law specifically states otherwise.
- 21.2. You are not permitted to use our name in any statement or document that you may issue unless our prior written consent has been obtained. The only exception to this restriction would be statements or documents that in accordance with applicable law are to be made public.

22. Interpretation

- 22.1. If any provision of our engagement letter or terms of business is held to be void for whatever reason, then that provision will be deemed not to form part of this contract, and no other provisions will be affected or impaired in any way. In the event of any conflict between these terms of business and the engagement letter or appendices, the relevant provision in the engagement letter or schedules will take precedence.

23. Internal disputes within a client

- 23.1. If we become aware of a dispute between the parties who own the business or who are in some way involved in its ownership and management, it should be noted that our client is the business and we would not provide information or services to one party without the express knowledge and permission of all parties. Unless otherwise agreed by all parties, we will continue to supply information to the registered office/normal place of business for the attention of the directors/proprietors/partners/trustees. If conflicting advice, information or instructions are received from different directors/principals in the business, we will refer the matter back to the board of directors/the partnership and take no further action until the board/partnership has agreed the action to be taken. In certain cases, we reserve the right to cease acting for the business/client entirely.

24. Disengagement

- 24.1. If we resign or are asked to resign, we will normally issue a disengagement letter to ensure that our respective responsibilities are clear.

25. Draft/interim work or oral advice

- 25.1. In the course of our providing services to you we may provide advice or reports or other work products in draft or interim form, or orally. However, final written work products will always prevail over any draft, interim or oral statements. Where you request it, we will provide you with written confirmation of matters stated orally.

26. Probate-type services

- 26.1. The Register of ICAEW accredited probate firms specifies whether or not the firm is licensed or authorised by the ICAEW for non-contentious probate services.
- 26.2. As we are licensed/authorised for the reserved legal activity of non-contentious probate, in the unlikely event that we cannot meet our liabilities to you, you may be able to seek a grant from ICAEW's Probate Compensation Scheme. Generally, applications for a grant must be made to ICAEW within 12 months of the time you become aware, or reasonably ought to have been aware of the loss. Further information about the scheme and the circumstances in which grants may be made is available on ICAEW's website: www.icaew.com/probate.
- 26.3. If you would like to talk to us about how we can improve our service to you, or if you are unhappy with the service you are receiving, please let us know by contacting the firm's Managing Partner, Julie Adams or the Head of Legal Practice in a licensed firm, David Truman. We will consider carefully any complaint that you may make about our probate services as soon as we receive it and will do all we can to resolve the issue. We will acknowledge your complaint within five business days of its receipt and endeavour to deal with it within 8 weeks. Any complaint should be submitted to us by letter.
- 26.4. If we do not deal with it within this timescale or you are unhappy with our response you may of course take the matter up with the Legal Ombudsman. Complaints to the Legal Ombudsman should be made within six years of the act or omission or within three years of you becoming aware of the issue, and in either case within six months of our written response to your complaint to us.
